

HARLOW TO COACH BOXERS.

Former Football Star Will Assist
Bezdek at Penn State.

STATE COLLEGE, Penn., Jan. 7.—Lieutenant R. C. (Dick) Harlow, former coach of the Penn State football team, and who has just received his honorable discharge from the United States Army, has been engaged as Assistant Director of Physical Education to assist Hugo Bezdek. During the last Fall, Harlow has been stationed at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, where he coached the football team and went through the season without a defeat.

Harlow will take direct charge of the boxing and will assist with the other intermural sports that are being developed under the direction of Coach Bezdek.

The New York Times

Published: January 9, 1919

Copyright © The New York Times